Thought for the Month

This month Beryl Wootton shares her thoughts on
'A caring church'.

I found this quote on-line and wanted to share it with you:

"A caring church is characterised by its commitment to the well-being of its members, both spiritually and emotionally.

It is a place where individuals feel valued, supported and loved.

The church pastoral care extends beyond the Sunday sermons, creating an environment where people can find solace, guidance and healing during life's joys and challenges."

The reason I wanted to share this is because I have benefited from such pastoral care in the last two months, since I fractured my Pelvic bone in three places. Friends from London Street United Reformed Church, visited me in Hospital and at home. They brought me books to read, fruit to eat and made me laugh. They phoned me or sent emails and generally made me feel loved and missed.

Once I was able to walk far enough to get to Church, I was welcomed and felt at home. Thank you all.

I will end with a prayer:

*God of all time,
as we step into a new year,
we pray you would bless each one of us with hearts full of love for those around us,
compassion that spills into action,
determined to see a world transformed,
and a desire to pray without ceasing.
Give us endless hope and trust in You.*

May You get the glory for all we put our hearts and hands to in 2026.

Thank You for Your goodness and the promise of journeying with us always.

Amen.

Special Prayer Requests

Old Friends:

We have had a request from Rev Kay Blackwell to pray for a family who was closely involved with 'Little Angels', the Toddler Group which used to run at church. They were also involved with our online junior church, during lockdown. Mum is Joice and her husband Lee has been diagnosed with stage 4 Brain Tumour. They have 4 children and Joice is pregnant! Lee is having fits which are preventing Lee having treatment. We are asked to pray that the fits will stop to enable treatment. Please pray for the whole family.

Our Iranian Friends:

We need to hold our Iranian friends in our prayers. They are all anxious about their friends and families back home in Iran. This is especially so as they are unable to contact their loved ones. Vahid has asked for our support and has expressed how he feels loved and supported by his church family here at London St.

The Bentall family:

Peter Bentall is undergoing treatment, (thank you to Owen, Tony and Ian Scott who are providing transport along with Peter's son, Paul). Pray too for Ruth who will be anxious about Peter, and is being supported by their grandson, Daniel.

Candlemas

Jenny McCloy explains this tradition.

This is a significant Christian festival, which dates back seventeen centuries, and which is held on February 2nd. It is to commemorate the purification of the virgin Mary (this was done according to Jewish law after childbirth). It also commemorates the presentation of Christ at the Temple, 40 days after his birth, signifying his dedication and his parents' dedication to the Jewish faith, and foreshadowing his role as 'The Light of the World'. It concludes the Christmas season and ends with the blessing of candles symbolising Christ's light dispelling winter's darkness. Some people leave their decorations up until Candlemas Day. The name Candlemas comes from the tradition of blessing all candles for the year on this day. People take their candles to church to be blessed. Many people also place lit candles in their windows at home on Candlemas Night, symbolising Christ's light.

In Luke's Gospel Ch 2 vv21-38 we read how Simeon and Anna were waiting and Simeon, who had been told by the Holy Spirit that he wouldn't die before he had met the Messiah, recognises the baby Jesus as God's promised one: vv28-30 'Simeon was moved to go to the Temple Courts where he met the child Jesus. Simeon took him in his arms and praised God saying, "Sovereign Lord, as you have promised you now dismiss your servant in peace for my eyes have seen your salvation".

Here we see the link between Candlemas and Simeon who recognises Jesus as the light of the world.

Flame of a Candle

A poem for Candlemas by Nigel Beeton.

See the candle flame a-burning
See its flick'ring, dancing light;
See how it, the darkness spurning
Burns throughout the darkest night.

Light of faith, of God reminding
As His Spirit, long ago
Lit the first apostles, finding Faith within the Spirit's glow.

Light of life – God's life eternal
Won through Christ's atoning death
Sparing us from Hell, infernal
Granting us His living breath!

Light of hope, in God victorious
For we know that He will win
When we'll see His flames of glorious
Vict'ry o'er the pow'r of sin!

Light your candle, kneel and praise Him
Kneel and praise the Lord of Hosts;
Let your prayers and praises raise Him
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
